How I love to — turn back life's pag - es, Could the mo - ments — stretch in - to hours —

— Just to drift back — through mem - o - ry. — There were mo - ments — Could the hours — stretch in - to years, — Life on earth then — at dif - ferent a - ges, — When the whole world smiled on me. —

— would be a Hav - en, — I could laugh a - way my tears. —

Refrain

There were mo - ments — in ear - ly child - hood, — Hap - py mo - ments — that I re - p-f

call; — There were mo - ments — I strolled the wild - wood, — When ev - 'ning shad - ows — be - gan to fall — There were mo - ments, — when I grew old - er, —

— That seemed sweet - er — than all to me, — But the mo - ments — I spent with you, dear, — Are my jew - els of mem - o - ry. — There were - ry.

Chorus

I made you sigh, I made you cry, I've brought you sor-row and care. ————— But I will try, dear-bye and bye, To share all the sor-rows you bear. ————— I'll bring you cheer) for ev-ry tear,
